

J. L. Whitney
Oct. 31, 1940

T
C

Newport, R.I.
Feb 20, 1868.

Dear Sir

I am preparing a brief memoir of Mrs. Child for a Connecticut publisher. I should be very glad, if you would give me your impression, as highly as you please, of Mrs. C's career as an editor of which I know very little having only taken the Liberator in those days. If there is any reason why you prefer not to do this, may do not,

My dear

Dear Sir

I am

a great admirer of your publications

and I am very glad to hear that you

are so well

and I am sure

of what I have heard of from the friends

of your cause

and I am sure

that you will

but I honestly ask for ~~your~~ information; And you as a "professional" should be the best authority about editors. I have a general impression that he succeeded very well. I will quote you by name, or not,
as you may prefer.

Very respectfully yours

T. W. Higginson

W. L. Garrison, Esq.

Ms. Acc. 581 (7D)